THIRD PLACE FOR BELDEME

Ort Wells, Tanya and Other Cracks Made Very Indifferent Showing.

(By Associated Press.)

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 31.—Drizzling rain, a slow track and a large crowd marked the opening of the Saratoga race meeting to-day. Caughnawaga captured the Saratoga Handicap for his owner, John Sanford, in easy style, outfooting cracks such as Ort Wells, Beldeme and Tanya. Nearly a length separated Caughnawaga and Brandy Water-Light as they passed the judges' stand. Water-Light beat Beldeme by half a length and these three finished in a division by themselves. Summary:

THE JURY POLLS
TWO PRECINCTS

tention and fullest investigation, so that you may report not only when and where fraud has been committed, but also what officers have faithfully discharged their duties, for while the law requires that the guilty man shall be punished, justice demands that the honest man shall be freed even from the suggestion of evil and wrongdoing.

"You will remember that the ballot is the strong arm of citizenship, the badge of manhood, and it is the duty of the law to preserve its strength and power.
I say to you again that the laws enacted by the legislature for the protection of the electors are applicable to primary as well as general elections."

Punishes All Fraud.
"You will observe that the law is comprehensive and punishes every species of fraud which can be perpetrated against the election laws of the State. Whilst these crimes are only made misdemeanors by the legislature, I cannot too strongly impress upon you the importance of crime investigation, for the very foundation of the government. The republic is founded upon the will of the people freely expressed, and no administration can properly and efficiently discharge its public duties which does not have its origin in the confidence of the voters, honestly and fairly expressed."

"The purity of the ballot is the safety of the State.
"No government can endure which is based on a corrupt suffrage and man should be willing to hold any office unless he stands ready to make good an honest title."
"This public demands that its elections shall be fair, that its election officers shall be clean-handed, that the candidate who receives the most votes shall have the returns.

"You will remember that you represent no candidate, and are not trying to contested election, but simply inquiring whether or not any fraud has been committed and if so by whom.
"You are the representatives of the law, and as such will guard its interest."

No Great Scandal.
The recent election was frequently discussed informally in the corridor of the hall by spectators, the trend of opinion being that there was little probability of any striking discoveries growing out of the election. A well known and prominent lawyer expressed the opinion that one of the precincts to be investigated was "straight as a string," as he expressed it. Generally among those around the hall the impression seemed to be that the jurors would find that the election had been fairly and honestly conducted and accurately returned in general, and that the grand jury would discover only such mistakes as are common in elections.

It is recognized, of course, that the jury will exhaust all sources of information bearing on the election and the manner of its conduct, and it now seems likely that the payment of poll taxes will also be made a subject of inquiry before the investigation is completed.

Of course, if the jury find any glaring evidence of fraud or any striking discrepancies between the vote as returned and that shown by the recount and poll being made, it will inquire into the matter and seek all the information attainable. Among those who, it is said, have been summoned as witnesses are Treasurer C. H. Phillips, Mr. W. P. Knowles, superintendent of the gas department; Commissioner of the Revenue O. A. Hawkins, and Mr. F. C. Ebel, a member of the electoral board.

It is generally conceded that the indictments already returned will inevitably have the effect of bringing about a final test by the highest courts of the State of the validity of the Barksdale law to promote pure elections. Many content that certain provisions of the law contravene the Constitution. The law to be made will either overthrow or greatly strengthen the law and clearly define its application.

VALUES SHOW A GREAT INCREASE

The North Carolina Corporation Commission Makes a Cheering Report.

GOVERNOR GRANTS PARDON

Several Are Issued for Excellent Reasons—Great Demand for Cars.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALPHIGH, N. C., July 31.—The Corporation Commission gave out to-day a summary of the increase in tax valuation of railroad and miscellaneous corporation property, as reassessed by them during June and July, the reassessment being on extensions and improvements, and not on the general property, which is reassessed every four years. The statement shows the value of railroad property to be $69,573,334, an increase of $82,261, and other corporations are $5,795,000, this being an increase of $777,946. The total increase is $830,207.
Atlantic Coast Line property is valued at $24,644,014; Seaboard Air Line at $12-600,000; Southern Railway (owned lines), $11,735,230; (leased lines), $11,675,330, and miscellaneous roads, $5,308,721.

Want Cars Promptly.

The High Point furniture manufacturers are making a strenuous fight before the North Carolina Corporation Commission for an order to compel the Southern Railway to furnish freight cars more promptly for the shipment of their goods to their customers. They report to the commission that they are in immediate need of two hundred and forty cars of this type, and none are forthcoming, although many of the railroads have been filled with them. A petition thenceforth the conditions from their viewpoint has been filed with the commission, and arrangements are being made by the commission for a joint hearing of the case.

Mrs. James M. Warren, the aged woman who cut her throat with suicidal intent Saturday, died Sunday night and was buried to-day from the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Her mind was unbalanced. She used her husband's razor.

Mr. George W. Norwood, chief clerk in the office of the Secretary of State, continues desperately ill, and his recovery is still uncertain. He is recovering from the same disease, and another was brought home from a visit in Orange county yesterday, being just attacked with the same malady.

Pardons Granted.
Governor Glenn this morning granted a pardon on good behavior to John Archey, who was convicted in Guilford county in May, 1903, for perjury and sentenced to three years on the county roads.
The Governor issues a statement to the effect that the pardon is on condition that he behaves in future, and that he will not again retail liquor without license.
Since his imprisonment, Archey has been a model prisoner, the pardon was recommended by the solicitor, chairman of the county board of commissioners, supervisor of roads, and the leading citizens of Guilford.

Another pardon is for At. Gaines, convicted in Stanley county in December, 1904, of assault with a deadly weapon, and sentenced to eighteen months on the county roads. This pardon is also on condition that the defendant remain of good behavior. He is now sick, and the superintendent of health in Randolph county and the county physician at Stanley, together with the solicitor, recommend the pardon, as further confinement would likely cause his death.

The following charters were granted to-day: Franklin Africa and Realty Company, $125,000 capital, by M. D.
Bishop and others; $100,000 capital, by Company, Leasing and others; Southern Spin-H. H. Springs and others; $20,000 capital, and Flyer Company; $20,000 capital, to manufacture cotton mill supplies; incorporator, Thomas M. Costello; Lenora Grocery Company; $25,000, by J. R. Evans and others; The Carrier Brothers Company, Wallace, $100,000, to deal in and develop timber lands.

HE WAS A DEMOCRAT.
Man, Charged With Being Insane, Wouldn't Let Negro Arrest Him.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SPENCER, N. C., July 31.—Mr. W. H.
Ellis, a hired man in custody by Chief Police B. F. Lee, on the charge of insanity, a warrant for his commitment having been sworn out a few days ago.

When taken by the officer he had just returned from a trip to the western part of the State, and upon being proached became very angry and enraged, and refused to be taken to the hospital. A colored man was summoned to the assistance of the officer, and Mr. Ellis at once seemed to regain his reasoning and exclaimed:

"Officer, I thought you were a Democrat; don't dare have a negro place a hand on me!"

He then walked peacefully to a conveyance in which he was carried away.

The regular church of this place was formally opened Sunday morning, a large congregation coming from all of the various churches of the town being present.

It is expected that work will begin at a very early date on the new building of the Spencer and the Men's Christian Association, the contract for which was recently awarded to W. S. Grandy & Son, of Greenville, S. C. The structure is to cost $27,000.

TERRIBLY WOUNDED.
A Boy Attacked By a Negro in Weldon, N. C.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILSON, N. C., July 31.—Mr. Charlie Jones, son of Mr. T. A. Jones, rail-master for the Seaboard Air Line, was seriously cut in the left side by a negro, Sunday morning. Young Jones, who was merely an overgrown boy, had who is merely an overgrown boy, had and without warning Savage plunged his knife into Mr. Jones, inflicting a dangerous wound, just above the pelvis, two and three-quarters of an inch in length.
The knife penetrated the abdomen, making an abdominal wound three inches in length.

The young man was taken to the office of Dr. A. R. Zollcoffer, where Dr. A. R. and Dr. B. Zollcoffer performed an operation, dressing the wound, and then took him to his home, where he is reported to be doing well.

The negro attempted to escape, but was soon run down and taken in by Officer Dickens. Over one hundred people joined in the hunt for Savage. He has been sent to jail, no ball being allowed until after young Jones is pronounced out of danger.

Kaiser Scorned Check.
A New York paper recently asked Emperor William, of Germany, to sign the article to be signed. A check for $5,000 was enclosed with the request. By returning the check the Emperor had the effect that the Emperor had no desire to write for such a publication on any subject, and especially on the Kaiser's returning the check.
